

Kerri Marie Presley PA-C

EDUCATION

- 2005-2007 University of Kentucky
M.S in Physician Assistant Studies
- 2000-2004 University of Kentucky
B.S. in Biology
Magna Cum Laude with 3.79 G.P.A.
- 1996-2000 Graves County High School
Honors Degree; Valedictorian; G.P.A. of 4.0

AWARDS

Departmental honors in Biology
Dean's List (4 years)
Academic Scholarship (2years)
Bluegrass Scholarship (4 years)
Golden Key National Honors Society
Alpha Lambda Delta Honors Fraternity

EMPLOYMENT

- 09/08-current Internal Medicine Physician Assistant MUSC
- Provided acute primary care in a rapid access clinic through the department of internal medicine by obtaining histories and performing physical exams on MUSC employees and other adults, as well as the diagnosis and treatment of numerous acute diseases
 - Responsible for the care of patients in the Transitional Care Unit including performing complete histories and physicals upon admission, ordering appropriate diagnostic tests, prescribing medications, writing progress notes, counseling patients and families, dictating discharge summaries, and other hospital duties
 - Assisted in the development of several disease specific EMR templates to be used by other Internists, interpreted various lab work ordered by residents and physicians, and participated in staff meetings to formulate improvements in the General Internal Medicine and Rapid Access Clinics
- 09/07-06/08 Family Practice Physician Assistant Strauss Clinics
- Provided primary care in rural family practice clinic through obtaining histories and performing complete physical exams on all age groups, as well as diagnosis and treatment of various diseases
 - Responsible for hospital patients including performing complete histories and physicals upon admission, ordering appropriate diagnostic tests, prescribing medications, writing progress notes, counseling patients and families, dictating discharge summaries, and other hospital duties
- 07/03-06/06 Transporter Central Baptist Hospital
- Transported patients from room to procedures or discharge
 - Transferred patients from bed to stretcher or wheelchair
- 06/03-07/06 Nanny Julie Pash
- Took care of infant born at 25 weeks gestation; later took care of two small children
- 09/00-05/03 Student Supervisor Ovid's Cafe
- Supervised student workers
 - Implemented store closing procedures, including money-Safe verification
 - Trained new employees

PROFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

8 week Clerkships

Family Medicine

Family Practice Associates, Murray, KY; Richard H. Crouch, M.D.

Pediatrics

Trover Foundation NICU, Madisonville, KY; Alex Soriano, M.D.

Pediatric Health Group, Madisonville, KY; Rennan Quijano, M.D.

General Surgery

Howard and Grogan General and Laparoscopic Surgery, Paducah, KY; Edwin Grogan, M.D. and Daniel Howard, M.D.

4 week Clerkships

Emergency Medicine

Lourdes Hospital

John Brazzell, M.D.

Geriatrics

David Zetter, M.D., Arlington, KY

Women's Health

Kendu Bay Adventist Hospital, Kenya; Marialita Solis, M.D.

Internal Medicine

Kendu Bay Adventist Hospital, Kenya; John Owaka, M.D.

Internal Medicine

Primary Care, Murray, KY; Hollis Clark, M.D.

Psychiatry

The Ridge Behavioral Health Systems, Lexington, KY; Laurie Humphries, M.D.

Interventional Cardiology Elective

Kentucky Cardiology Consultants, Cynthiana, KY; Nezar Falluji, M.D.

CERTIFICATION and LICENSES

National Board Certified (certificate number: 1079734)

South Carolina Licensed PA-C (license number: TL1339)

Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS)

Basic Life Support training

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

National: American Association of Physician Assistants

State: South Carolina Association of Physician Assistants

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2006 Master's Project

Thompson, K., "Preventing Preterm Birth", research paper and presentation, advisor Eric Reynolds, M.D., University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY, April 2006.

2004 Biology Research

Thompson, K., "West Nile Virus in Kentucky's Bluebird Population", research paper and poster presentation, advisor David Westneat, Ph.D., University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY, April 2004.

References: Available upon request.

Updated: 9/24/2008